

EASTERN SHORE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE EGGS N' ISSUES
Update on I-10 Bridge

DAPHNE, AL, January 15, 2014 - - The Eastern Shore Chamber of Commerce Business Academy Eggs N' Issues will focus on "A Construction Update on the I-10 Bridge" at the next breakfast meeting, Tuesday, February 11, 8:30 am at the Daphne United Methodist Church Community Life Center. The Keynote speaker will be Michael Lee, president/CEO of Page and Jones, Inc.

Founded in Mobile in 1892, Pages and Jones is an international logistics and shipping company, whose services include ship agents, customs brokers, and freight forwarding for ocean and air shipments. Still headquartered in Mobile, and celebrating 122 years of service, they have grown to 13 offices in six states.

Lee is Chairman of the Alabama Export Council, an appointment by the Secretary of Commerce, serves on Regions Bank's South Area Board of Directors, chairman of the University of Alabama's International Business Advisory Board, board member & vice president for Alabama of the French-American Chamber of Commerce, and a board member of Rand Corporation's Gulf States Advisory Board. He also has served for 11 years as the chairman of the Mobile Convention & Visitors Bureau Board, moving to Immediate Past Chair this year.

In addition to co-chairing the "Build the Bridge Coalition" for the Mobile Chamber, Mike has been active in many other Mobile Chamber committees. He served as Chairman of the Board in 2002.

Sponsors for the Business Academy are: Hartmann, Blackmon & Kilgore, PC; Baldwin EMC; and Daphne Utilities.

The cost for the breakfast is $10 and reservations must be made. Call 928-6387 to RSVP.

###