

Privacy Act Statement

Authority: 49 U.S.C. §§114, 44936 authorizes the collection of this information.

Purpose: The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) will use the biographical information to conduct a security threat assessment to evaluate your eligibility for the program to which you are applying. Your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics will be provided to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) for the purpose of comparing your fingerprints to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI. DHS will also transmit the fingerprints for enrollment into the US-VISIT's Automated Biometrics Identification System (IDENT). If you provide your Social Security Number (SSN), DHS may provide your name and SSN to the Social Security Administration (SSA) to compare that information against SSA's records to ensure the validity of your name and SSN.

Routine Uses: This information may be shared with third parties during the course of a Security Threat Assessment, employment investigation, or adjudication of a waiver or appeal request to the extent necessary to obtain information pertinent to the assessment, investigation, or adjudication of your application or in accordance with the routine uses identified in the Transportation Security Threat Assessment System (T-STAS), DHS/TSA 002. For as long as you fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent or without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket.

Disclosure: Furnishing this information (including your SSN) is voluntary; however if you do not provide your SSN or any other information requested, DHS may be unable to complete your application for identification media.

Notice Regarding Social Security Numbers: Federal and State laws require the City of Pensacola to provide written notice when a social security number is being obtained by the City. The City utilizes social security numbers for identification, tax reporting, applications for assistance and income verification as required by applicable program requirements under state or federal law, claims handling and data management purposes only, and all federal and state statutes regarding confidentiality and restriction of use are adhered to. The disclosure is authorized pursuant to F.S. 119.071, and no right, benefit or privilege may be denied because of refusal to disclose a social security account number, unless collection of the social security number is mandated by law or required to be disclosed to provide assistance.
